

APOSTLE JOHN P. KELLY

For over thirty years, John Kelly has committed his life to raising up End Time Warriors and establishing the Kingdom of God throughout the earth. John combines God's wisdom with his life experiences in education, business, sports and the workplace to inspire hundreds of thousands of men and women to achieve God's destiny for their lives.

Dr. Kelly's background in economics and his special anointing by God have enabled him to be a dynamic force in the "transference of wealth movement." In 2006, John called together a group of successful business leaders to establish International Christian WealthBuilders Foundation (ICWBF). This was born from a vision to see God's people not only achieve spiritual wealth, but also fulfill God's covenant to be wealth builders and wealth generators to become wealth distributors. He and the ICWBF Council members conduct training seminars and conferences and publish various training materials necessary to empower a new army of wealthbuilders.

John Kelly is also the founder and CEO of LEAD (Leadership Education for Apostolic Development). As an apostolic strategist, he travels worldwide to train, strengthen and encourage leaders to achieve their apostolic destinies. In 1999, he established International Coalition of Apostles (ICA) to bring apostolic leaders together for fellowship and networking in order to strengthen the apostolic movement. As the Ambassador Apostle for ICA, John serves Dr. C. Peter Wagner, the Presiding Apostle over ICA.

John is also a board member or advisor with several Bible Colleges and one university and transformational organizations. His books, Power to Get Wealth and End Time Warriors and MasterBuilder Institutes, are relevant and timeless tools designed to impart the knowledge needed to build the Kingdom of God with apostolic wisdom.
